LUXURY RIVER TRIP

📍 River cruise
ARIA AMAZON, PERU

A riverboat holiday is this generation's answer to the traditional cruise (with not a purple-rinsed roller in sight), and the newly-refreshed Aria is pure luxury. Trugging along the Amazon, there is no reason for honeymooners to leave their suite – the floor-to-ceiling windows offer unforgettable views of the riverbanks, remote villages and local wildlife.

Price: From £2,955 per person for a three-night cruise, based on two people sharing a Design Suite, including meals and drinks on-board, a private dinner on your evening of choice, a movie screening (dependent on availability) and excursions on the Amazon. Visit aqualexpeditions.com

VENICE SIMPLON-ORIENT-EXPRESS

Travel back in time to the golden age of travel on the Venice Simplon-Orient Express. Making for a romantic three-day mini-moon, the iconic vessel meanders through the Alps and across the Italian vineyards, mountain scenery and villages. The interiors of the two sleeping cars and three dining carriages are restored to their polished wood-panelled Art Deco splendour – with gilded furnishings and opulent upholstery.

Price: Three nights London to Venice, from £4,000, including a one-night stay on the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express and two nights at the Belmond Hotel Cipriani. Visit scottdunn.com

📍 Foodie getaway
ROSEWOOD CASTIGLION DEL BOSCO, TUSCANY

They say the way to someone's heart is through their stomach, so how better to start married life than an indulgent culinary trip to Tuscany, known as much for its fabulous food and wine as for the rolling landscapes? The Rosewood is on an 800-year-old estate with 4,000 acres, a winery, two restaurants, a spa and an infinity pool set on the crest of a lavender-and-bluebell hill. A cookery school invites guests to pick ingredients from the garden and concludes with a boozy lunch.

Price: Doubles from £562 per night, including a wine-tasting tour for two. Visit mrmandmrsmith.com
